ATHENS PE UNVEILS DR. RIZAL’S BUST

Ambassador Montealegre and Embassy personnel together with the Filipino community members during the unveiling of Dr. Rizal’s bust at the Embassy premises.

The Philippine community and the Philippine Embassy celebrated ‘Paskong Pinoy 2011’ at the Danaos Theater in Central Athens on Sunday, 11 December 2011. The celebration was attended by more than 500 Filipinos from all over Greece many of whom are members of the Accredited Community Partners (ACP). The ACP is composed of community leaders and individuals who partner with the Philippine Embassy in many community events, programs and activities. This year’s celebration revolved around the theme “Pagh-asa: Ang Diwa ng Pasko sa Gresya,” extolling hope, optimism, fortitude and the spirit of unity and cooperation among the Filipinos in Greece amidst the economic difficulties obtaining in the country.

In his message to the Filipino community, Philippine Ambassador to Greece Meynardo L.B. Montealegre, commended the leaders of the ACP for choosing a relevant and timely theme. Despite the economic difficulties, he said, the Filipinos in Greece remain optimistic and are ready to be one with fellow Filipinos in the true spirit of Christmas. The Ambassador reiterated the readiness of the Embassy to assist them in their needs.

He also invited the members of the Filipino community to encourage their fellow Filipinos to register for the Overseas Absentee Voting and to invite their Greek friends to visit the Philippines to enjoy the many beautiful tourist destinations and explore trade and investment opportunities in the country.

The day-long celebration was full of fun and presentations from various community groups, starting off with a fitting enactment of the Nativity. Contests were held for the “Best Christmas Lantern (parol),” and “Best Group Presentation”. Contests showcased their creative talents in making parols out of recycled materials like empty bottle water containers, newspapers, magazines, empty beer cans and garlic peelings, among others, as well as their talents in singing and dancing during the group presentations. Raffle draws, and gift-giving to Filipino children also marked the day. The finale was a heart-warming rendition of Sa Araw ng Pasko participated in by representatives of various groups in a warm gesture of unity, cooperation and sharing to mark the spirit of Christmas in Greece.

Filipino groups in Greece include: the ACP, CFC Kids for Christ, KASAPI, DI-WATA, Ang Munting Nayon, VISMMAG, Bagong Kapwsko Pilipino in Athens Organization, Philippine Guardians Brotherhood Inc., Filipino Community Academy Institute Association, Triskelion Athens, and KAPHILCA-PSG, among others.
ATHENS PE COMMENCES OAV REGISTRATION

Lian, Batangas, Mrs. Balbar has been working for the same employer since she arrived in Athens in 1992. She said that she has not participated in any voter’s registration or election since she left Philippines, and added that she appreciates the Philippine government’s effort to reach out to Filipinos abroad through the OAV.

Another registrant, 45-year-old Ms. Victoria A. Mendoza from Ambelokipi, Athens, has been employed for four years now with the Koutsolioutsos family who owns Folli Follie, a Greek company which designs, manufactures, and distributes jewellery, watches and fashion accessories in 25 countries worldwide. As an OFW in Taiwan and now in Athens, she said that she keeps herself abreast of political developments in the Philippines.

She is pleased at the opportunity to register as an Overseas Absentee Voter.

Athens PE Participates in the Friends of the Child’s 12th International Christmas Bazaar

The Philippine Embassy participated in the 12th International Christmas Bazaar from 26 to 27 November 2011. The bazaar was held at Helexpo Palace in Marousi, Athens. Other embassies also participated in the bazaar.

The bazaar was organized by the Friends of the Child, a charitable association of Greek women which was established in 1987. The proceeds will be used to support the Friends of the Child’s Nursery School for children of single mothers in need.

The Philippine Embassy showcased Filipino products such as assorted pastillas, tarts, dried mangoes, bags, place-mats, embroidered cloth, and ladies’ accessories (including necklaces made from fresh water pearls).

Filipino food products that have been enjoying popular patronage were also sold during the event.

Mindful of the virtues of the national hero, who “subordinated his personal interests to those of his country” and the welfare of the nation. The Ambassador mentioned that it was also fitting that the installation of the bust, which was initiated by the Embassy in 2007, was completed this year, to also commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of the national hero.

Members of the Filipino community present include representatives from Bagong Kapwa Ko Pilipino Organization sa Athens, Philippine Overseas Society, Triskelion Greece Chapter, Timpuyog Ti Daya, Visayas Mindanao Migrants Association in Greece, Pinoy TenPin Bowlers Athens, Catholic Charismatic Renewal Movement, Pastoral Group, KASAPI Hellas, Katipunan Philippine Cultural Academy and members of the Accredited Community Partners.

The bust of Dr. Rizal was provided by the National Commission for the Culture and the Arts (NCCA). The NCCA commissioned National artist Abdulmari Imao, for the bust, made of cast bronze. Dr. Rizal’s bust is strategically located at the Embassy grounds ready to meet Filipinos and guests visiting the Embassy.

The Philippine Government/ Hellenic Police Headquarters and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHRC) - Office in Greece, in the framework of the European Return Fund is implementing the Program: “Preparation, implementation of voluntary return actions for third country nationals and reception into their countries of origin” for the following target groups:

- Third country nationals who do not fulfill the conditions for entry and stay in the country.
- Third country nationals whose request for asylum is still pending or has been rejected.
- Third country nationals who enjoy international protection, but nonetheless wish to return to their countries.

Through this program, IOM undertakes all legal steps to assist qualified applicants in returning to their country of origin with safety and dignity.

More specifically, IOM is making the following arrangements:

- Registration and identification of those who wish to return to their countries of origin.
- Coordination with Embassies in the issuance of travel documents.
- Issuance of tickets.
- Provision of financial assistance.
- Escorting to the airport while departing from Greece and reception in the transit and final destination country (country of origin).

For more information, those who are interested can contact IOM, at 210 991 9040 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The program is implemented in the framework of the national actions of the European Return Fund and is co-financed by European Funds (75%) and National Funds (25%).

THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR MIGRATION
The International Organization for Migration is an international intergovernmental organization, with 127 member states, 17 Observer States and 460 offices worldwide. IOM cooperates with Governments and other International Organizations to ensure the orderly migration of refugees, displaced persons and migrants in general who are in need on international protection services.

Greece is a founding member of the International Organization for Migration. The Mission in Greece operates in the country, based on an Agreement signed in 1952 between the Greek Government and IOM (former ICEM). The Greek Mission of IOM provides a wide range of services in varied areas, such as:

- Resettlement of foreign migrants, refugees or asylum seekers from Greece to countries offering permanent settlement opportunities.
- Voluntary return of migrants, refugees and asylum seekers.
- Coordination of the national network for combating trafficking in human participation of state entities, Embassies, Consulates and NGOs.
- Provision of migratory consultative services to the Government.
- Provision of information and support to migrants, refugees and asylum seekers who address themselves to the Mission.
- Participation in transnational programs and researches, in cooperation with other IOM Missions.

THE EUROPEAN RETURN FUND
The European Return Fund was created in the framework of the European Union Program “Solidarity and Management of Migration Flows” for the period 2008-2013. The general objective of the Fund is to support the efforts of Member States, as well as national actions that are unforeseen with the view to achieving the goals of the Community, on the basis of solidarity and with respect to community legislation and fundamental rights.

The Christmas event in Cyprus was held on December 18, 2011 at the European University Nicosia entitled Pamaskong Handog sa mga OFWs sa Cyprus 2011. The event was in recognition of the OFWs’ valuable contribution to the Philippine economy and to make the presence of PHC- POLO-OWWA more meaningful.

Fr. Zachaeus Dulniok, a Polish Priest, opened the program with a thanksgiving prayer followed by the welcome remarks of the new Labor attaché, Atty Romulo Salud.

Labatt Salud along with the outgoing Welfare Officer Josephine Tobia hosted the whole show to the delight of the audience.

The highlight of the event was the recognition ceremonies of 300 OFWs who finished the training courses in Basic Caregiver conducted by Houston Medical Limited, Business Counseling mentored by Mr. Manuel Tobia and the Computer Course/ECDL under the tutelage of the Cyprus Computer Society. Majority of the graduates came all the way from Limassol.

Course graduates prepared their respective audio visual presentations as proof that the reintegration courses started in Cyprus have been successful.

Landbank, whose advocacy for savings is known, also presented a brief AVP for the public. A considerable number of OFWs have enrolled in the LBP OFW Savings account prompting LBP to send its representative bi-weekly in Cyprus.

A fund raising campaign was also part of the event where proceeds of the raffle tickets will go to the Tuloy Aral Project of OWWA. This project assists former OFWs who need assistance for their children to continue their elementary and high school education in the Philippines. The amount of 1000 euros raised will assist at least six children in their schooling for this school year.

Entertainment is a vital part of such events. A creative contest with the basic criteria of using improvised musical instruments and costumes brought out Filipino ingenuity in a simple but fun-filled caroling contest. Thirteen OFW organizations joined the competition vying for the English and Tagalog categories with fervor.

The first prize winner received €150.00, with €75.00 going to the second placer and €50.00 to the third placer. Vespers Choral Group, Jennifer & Friends, St. Joseph The Migrant Social Center won in the English category while Bibak, OFVC & Cy Angels won in the Tagalog category.

Landbank of the Philippines and Pagibig Overseas Program were the major sponsors of the contest. Raffle prizes were sponsored by Etihad, Pancyprian Association of Registered Private Recruitment Offices, POLO and OWWA.

To close the event, heartwarming tributes to the outgoing Welfare Officer, Mrs. Josephine Sanchez-Tobia, were given by the various organizations she has served, such as the OFW Family Club of Nicosia, Overseas Filipino Volunteers in Cyprus, Business Club-Limassol, First Aiders, ECDL of Limassol, BIBAK, St Joseph Social Center and other individuals. They prepared special segments in the program to show their gratitude to the person who started the Reintegration Program in Cyprus for OFWs along with Mr. Manuel Tobia who mentored then and was the proponent of the European Computer Driving License (ECDL) in Nicosia & Limassol, a first in the OFW community in Europe.

The Tobia couple were overwhelmed with the warm messages conveyed by the OFW community.

HonCon Shemaine Kyriakides graced the occasion and stayed the whole day as her way of reciprocating the OFWs’ support for the honorary consulate’s programs and services. The event was made successful by the working committee from the active Filipino community groups of OFWFC, OFVC, Business Counseling group and the ECDL team.
